Pique-Nique Collective

Ten artists meet at Stewart Park to create experimental and ephemeral artworks. The landscape will be dotted with their playful creations focusing on the idea of territory. The Pique-Nique Collective was formed in 2001 to carry out projects outdoors, investing new spaces other than the usual visual arts venues.

Guided tours

A guide with specialized knowledge introduces the contemporary art exhibitions at the heart of the Geopoetics project.

Performance on the public piano – Mimi Blais

Ragtime music is a way for Mimi Blais, the new Queen of Ragtime, to reveal her many talents as storyteller, communicator, singer, comedian and composer. This talented pianist makes audiences laugh and cry with her moving interpretations.

Relaxation zones

Through five audio clips, Audiotopie composers provide an immersive experience of the soundscapes of five Canadian regions: the Maritimes, central Canada, the high Arctic, the Prairie and the West Coast.

FESTIVE EVENING

Wednesday, September 6, 6 to 10 p.m.

STEWART HALL ART GALLERY AND STEWART PARK

The Stewart Hall Art Gallery invites you to the launch of the fall season. Wine and cheese will be served.

Les Sœurs Schmutt

Based on an intimate relation between dancer and spectator, this new project from a contemporary dance company highlights the spontaneity of creation and its ability to transform our environment and our relation to space and others.

This evening is also an opportunity to enjoy songs from childhood, by candlelight, with Berçer le temps artists (see page 10).
